PREFACE.

This volume has been prepared in accordance with the provisions of Section 6 (1) of the Census Act (Northern Ireland), 1925. The 1926 Census statistics which it contains were compiled from the returns made as at midnight of the 18-19th April, 1926: they supersede those in the Preliminary Report published in August, 1926, and may be regarded as final.

The Census publications will consist of:—

1. SEVEN COUNTY VOLUMES, each similar in design and scope to the present publication.
2. A GENERAL REPORT relating to Northern Ireland as a whole, covering in more detail the statistics shown in the County Volumes, and containing in addition tables showing
 - (i.) the occupational distribution of persons engaged in each of 51 groups of industries;
 - (ii.) the distribution of the foreign born population by nationality, age, marital condition, and occupation;
 - (iii.) the distribution of families of dependent children under 16 years of age, by age, sex, marital condition, and occupation of parent;
 - (iv.) the occupational distribution of persons suffering from infirmities.
3. A TOPOGRAPHICAL INDEX, dealing in separate alphabetical sections with each type of area for which statistics are published in the County series. The particulars given for each territorial unit include references to the 6" Ordnance Survey maps and to Tables 3, 4, or 5 of the relative County Volume.

The net prices for the above publications will be 5s. 0d. for each County Volume and 10s. 0d. each for the General Report and the Topographical Index. A complete set of these Volumes may be obtained directly from the Superintendent, H.M. Stationery Office, 15, Donegall Square West, Belfast, at the special inclusive price of £2 2s. 0d. strictly net.

The Registrar-General is empowered by Section 6 (2) of the Census Act (Northern Ireland), 1925, to prepare and supply from the Census returns, statistics other than those published in the Census Reports at the request and cost of any local authority or person. Any special demands for statistics more detailed than those published (either as regards subject matter or area) can thus, as far as office records permit, be satisfied. Requests for special compilation of Census statistics should be addressed to the Registrar-General, who will be pleased to advise and furnish an estimate of cost.

PART I.

DEFINITIONS AND EXPLANATIONS OF TERMS USED IN THIS VOLUME.

AREA.

The acreages given are as measured by the Ordnance Survey of 1899—1907. They exclude—

In Tables 1, 3-5 (a) Foreshore and unnamed islands of less than one rood in extent.

In Tables 3-5 (b) The larger rivers, lakes, and tideways.

N.B.—While the larger rivers, lakes, and tideways are not enclosed within townland boundaries they form part of administrative areas. The extent of these excluded portions is shown for the county, county borough, county districts, and poor law unions in footnotes to the appropriate tables.

POPULATION.

The population comprises all persons, including Forces of the Crown, enumerated as at midnight of Sunday the 18th-19th April, 1926, together with those who, not having been enumerated elsewhere, arrived in port or were received into any dwelling on the morning of the 19th April before the Census returns were collected.

The population assigned to each area is that actually present (as defined above) within it, whether as permanent residents or temporary visitors, persons in port but on ship board being classified to the adjacent area.

In general these definitions apply to the population as enumerated at previous censuses, and shown in Table 2.

ADMINISTRATIVE DIVISIONS.

The County is divided into seven county districts (three urban and four rural) comprising 86 district electoral divisions, three of which are situate in urban districts (see Table 3).

The County Borough is divided into five wards, each of which is coterminous with a district electoral division (see Table 3).

Four poor law unions are contained within the County and County Borough. The medical dispensary districts situate in the County and County Borough number twenty-one and three respectively (see Table 4). Poor law unions and medical dispensary districts are, respectively, superintendent registrars' and registrars' districts for the registration of marriages, births, and deaths.

The County is also divided into nineteen county electoral divisions (see Table 5); and into three regional education areas. The County Borough forms an additional regional education area (see Table 12).

Apart from the reconstitution of county electoral divisions and district electoral divisions in 1923, the changes which have taken place in the boundaries of administrative divisions since 1911 are as follows :—

- (a) Portion of Londonderry County transferred to Antrim County consequent on the extension of Portrush Urban District (1st April, 1915).
- (b) Coleraine Rural District, Coleraine Union, and Portstewart Medical Dispensary District reduced by transfer to Antrim County of the portion referred to at (a) (1st April, 1915).

- (c) Portstewart Urban District formed out of portion of Coleraine Rural District (1st April, 1916).
- (d) Londonderry Poor Law Union reduced by the exclusion therefrom of the County Donegal portion (1st April, 1921).

PARLIAMENTARY CONSTITUENCY.

The present parliamentary constituency was created by the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, and comprises the administrative county and county borough of Londonderry.

HOUSES.

1. The term "House" denotes
 - (a) each structure (except institutions) which stands alone or is separated from another by a vertical party wall; and which is used or intended partly or wholly for habitation;
 - (b) each institution (viz., hospital, sanatorium, nursing home, infirmary, workhouse, asylum, religious or charitable community, residential school or college, barracks or other premises under Naval, Military, Air Force, or Police discipline, prison or other place of detention), regardless of the number of buildings within its precincts;
 - (c) each vessel, caravan, tent, or other movable dwelling.

The 1911 figures for "Houses" do not include vessels, and each separate building within the precincts of an institution was at that Census regarded as a separate "House."

2. The terms "Boarding-House" and "Lodging-House" denote, in addition to habitations so described, any private house containing three or more boarders or lodgers.

3. The term "Private House" denotes all habitations other than
 - (a) dwellings within the precincts of an institution;
 - (b) hotels, boarding-houses, and other such communal dwellings;
 - (c) premises in which three or more boarders, lodgers, or trade assistants reside;
 - (d) residences occupied by virtue of the tenant's employment, (except rectories and manses, and dwellings belonging to but detached from domestic establishments);
 - (e) premises occupied by caretakers;
 - (f) ships, caravans, tents, and other movable dwellings;
 - (g) barns, stables, and out-houses occupied on Census night.

The term includes dwellings over shops except when these are occupied as described at (c) and (d) above.

4. The term "Inhabited" denotes actual residence of a person or persons, on Census night. "Uninhabited" houses therefore, include those temporarily vacant through the absence of the usual occupiers as well as those without tenants. Enumerators were instructed to omit from their enumeration empty houses in such an advanced state of decay that there was little likelihood that they would again be made fit for habitation. In this matter they were required to use their own judgment.

ROOMS.

1. The rooms enumerated are the usual living rooms, including bedrooms and kitchens, but excluding sculleries (i.e., rooms used only for washing, cleaning, or cooking), pantries, cloakrooms, landings, closets or bathrooms, or any warehouse, office or shop rooms.

2. For the purpose of classifying families by rooms occupied (Table 8), shared-room occupations—i.e., those in which two or more families have rooms in common,—have been rounded up to the next integral number of rooms. Thus, three families occupying $1\frac{1}{3}$, $2\frac{1}{3}$, and $2\frac{1}{3}$ rooms in a 6-roomed house would be shown as occupying 2, 3, and 3 rooms respectively. The extent of the rounding-up process may be ascertained in a general way by reference to Table 7, in which the actual number of rooms is given. Generally in cases of 1 room occupations, all persons living therein, whether related or not, have been enumerated as one Census family.

FAMILIES.

The term "Family" denotes

- (a) The inhabitants of each institution (see 1 (b) of "Houses" definition), hotel, boarding-house, lodging-house, or ship;
- (b) Each person or group of persons occupying separately the whole, or part of, any dwelling other than as described at (a).

"Private Families" mean all families enumerated in "Private Houses" (see 3 of "Houses" definition); and from the population and family totals of this class is calculated the number of persons per family in 1926 (see Table VI).

In 1911 the inhabitants of premises described at (a) above were in certain cases enumerated as two or more families. The number of persons per family was obtained by dividing the number of Census families into the entire population less the "special inmates" (i.e., patients, prisoners, soldiers, etc.) of institutions.

RATEABLE VALUATION.

The figures shown are those for service of the year ended 31st March, 1927, and have been supplied by the Commissioner of Valuation. Rateable hereditaments include lands, buildings, tolls, railways, tram-roads, canals, fisheries, turbaries, mines, quarries, waterworks, telegraphs, and telephones. The figures throughout exclude the valuation of electric and water mains, telegraphs, telephones, fisheries, and (in certain cases) railways, and waterworks, the amounts concerned being aggregated and shown for the county and county borough, county districts, and poor law unions in foot-notes to the appropriate tables.

EDUCATION.

The classification under educational establishments (which was assisted by reference to lists supplied for Census purposes by the Ministry of Education) is as follows:—

1. PUBLIC ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS. Day and evening pupils are grouped together in this class, the question on the Census schedule not requiring a separation as between day and evening in respect of pupils attending public elementary schools.
2. SECONDARY SCHOOLS, including preparatory departments and preparatory schools. This heading relates to day pupils only, and the schools are limited to those recognised by the Ministry of Education.
3. TECHNICAL SCHOOLS. The day pupils shown in this group comprise those stated to be attending junior technical schools, day commercial classes, and day classes for domestic economy and manual instruction which were being held at certain centres in April, 1926. The evening pupils comprise those stated to be attending technical schools or classes in the evening.
4. OTHER EDUCATIONAL ESTABLISHMENTS (Day and Evening). These include secondary schools not recognised by the Ministry of Education, universities, training colleges for teachers, agricultural schools, commercial schools, home or private tuition, etc.

OCCUPATIONS.

The occupational classification is based on that used in the Reports on the Census of England and Wales, 1921.*

It will be seen that there are thirty-two orders. Each of these covers the same occupational ground as the England and Wales orders. Eleven of the orders are divided into thirty-two sub-orders, each of which is comparable with the corresponding England and Wales sub-order, with the following exceptions:—

	Northern Ireland Sub-orders.		Corresponding England and Wales Sub-orders.
III.	2.	III.	2-4.
IV.	1.	IV.	1 and 2.
VII.	2.	VII.	2 and 3.
VII.	3-7.	VII.	4-8 respectively.
XIX.	1.	XIX.	1-3.
XX.	1 and 2.	XX.	2 and 3 respectively.
XX.	3.	XX.	1 and 4.
XXIII.	1.	XXIII.	1 and 2.

Within the sub-orders are 341 occupational headings, evolved by processes both of grouping and expansion from the England and Wales headings, which number 611.

INDUSTRIES.

The industrial classification is based on that used in the Reports on the Census of England and Wales, 1921.*

It will be seen that there are twenty-two orders. Each of these covers the same industrial ground as the England and Wales orders. Nine of the orders are divided into thirty-eight sub-orders, each of which is comparable with the corresponding England and Wales sub-order, with the following exceptions:—

	Northern Ireland Sub-orders.		Corresponding England and Wales Sub-orders.
XVI.	5.	XVI.	5-7.
XVIII.	1.	XVIII.	1 and 2.
XVIII.	2.	XVIII.	3.

Within the sub-orders are 226 industrial headings, evolved by processes both of grouping and expansion from the England and Wales headings, which number 477. The Industry table contained in this volume shows figures for orders and sub-orders only.

BIRTHPLACES.

Persons stated to have been born in Ireland—the County name or “Irish Free State” not being inserted—are assumed to have been born in the Irish Free State. Where nationality is given but birthplace is not, it has been assumed that the person was born in the country of which he or she is a national. All persons of British nationality and unstated birthplace have been regarded as born in the County of enumeration.

RELIGIOUS PROFESSIONS.

The religious professions, other than Roman Catholic, Presbyterian, Church of Ireland, and Methodist, have been classified under the headings set out at foot of Table 18, separate mention being made of all professions containing 10 or more adherents. The heading “Presbyterian” includes those who call themselves by this name without qualification, together with those returned as members of the Established Church of Scotland. Other Presbyterian denominations are shown at the foot of the table. Members of the Church of England and the Episcopal Church of Scotland have not been included under Church of Ireland except where stated. The latter group includes all persons returned as "Church" or "Episcopalian."

* Full details of the English system of classification are published in the “Classification of Occupations, Census, 1921,” and the “Classification of Industries, Census, 1921,” to be purchased directly from H.M.S.O., or through any Bookseller.

ORPHANHOOD.

In compiling statistics under this head, step-parents, foster-parents, and adoptive parents, so stated, have been treated in the same manner as natural parents. Where the information as to one parent is stated as "not known," that parent has been assumed to be dead and the case dealt with accordingly. Where information as to neither parent is given, the case has been placed in the "No Statement" group.

INFIRMITIES.

1. DEAF AND DUMB, DUMB, BLIND. The figures given are in respect of persons so returned, except where the answers indicate only partial infirmity, as "nearly blind."

2. CRIPPLED. In addition to those persons specifically described as "Crippled" the figures given include all cases in which it is clearly indicated that the person

- (a) has suffered a total permanent loss of the use of arm, hand, leg, or foot;
- (b) is permanently crippled in such a degree as to prevent the free pursuit of most ordinary occupations.

The following cases, treated as "Crippled," indicate the variety of the terms used in answering the question on the Census schedule:—

Arm—deformed, disabled; hand—deformed; hip joint disease; knee—decayed, tubercular arthritis in; leg—disabled, diseased bone in, infirm, short; on crutch; paralysis—infantile, nervous, of arms and side, of legs and back, of spine; rheumatoid arthritis; spinal caries; unable to walk.

3. MENTALLY AFFLICTED. All cases returned, whatever the degree of affliction, are included in the tables. The following terms were used in the returns:—

Afflicted; feeble minded; imbecile; melancholia; mental debility; simple; weak intellect.

4. Persons suffering from more than one infirmity have been classified to that which appears most likely to constitute the greater, or greatest, disability, infirmities being graded for this purpose from greatest to least, thus:—

Mentally afflicted; blind; crippled; deaf and dumb; dumb.

SPELLING OF PLACE NAMES.

The spelling of place names follows that in the 1911 Census volumes, except that corrections have been made to secure agreement with the spelling on the Ordnance Survey maps where differences were revealed in the course of the work. The spelling now may be regarded as generally following that adopted by the Ordnance Survey Department.

CONVENTION AS TO DOTS (.) AND DASHES (—).

Throughout this volume dots (.) are used in tabular matter to indicate nil (0), and dashes (—) are used to indicate that information cannot or is not intended to be given.

CORRECTION OF CENSUS DATA.

Every effort has been made to eliminate, as far as practicable, errors and inaccuracies from the Census data. The process of correction began with the Enumerators, who received full instructions as to the action to be taken in cases of error or omission; it was continued by a system of check applied at each stage of the office work; and was completed by an intensive scrutiny and inter-comparison of the tabulation sheets. This scrutiny and comparison revealed a certain number of incongruities, which, when material, were investigated and corrected in the light of the facts disclosed. Errors of a minor nature (i.e., such as could not affect the statistical value of the Census Tables) were adjusted more or less arbitrarily.

PART II.

STATISTICAL NOTES.

The definitions, etc., contained in Part I of this volume apply with equal force to the contents of these notes and to the tables contained in Part III. Roman numerals are used in this volume for the tables in Part II, and Arabic numerals for the tables in Part III.

AREA.

The area of Londonderry County and County Borough, exclusive of the larger rivers, lakes, and tideways, is 804 square miles, or 15.3 per cent. of the area of Northern Ireland. In 1915 the County lost about one-third of a square mile to County Antrim (see note to Table 2).

POPULATION.

The population numbers 139,693 persons, having decreased by 932 persons since the date of the 1911 Census, when the population numbered 140,625 persons. This decrease is a continuation (though at a much smaller rate) of the downward movement recorded at each Census enumeration from 1851 onwards. The actual decrease, after adjustment on account of the transfer of portion of the County to County Antrim, amounts only to 663 persons.

TABLE I.

Intercensal Period. (a)	Population at beginning of Period.	Births Registered.	Deaths Registered.	Excess of Births over Deaths.	Intercensal decrease in Population.	Net movement outwards from the County Col. (5) plus Col. (6).
(1)	(2)	(3)	(4)	(5)	(6)	(7)
1871—1881	173,906	42,427	30,306	12,121	8,915	21,036
1881—1891	164,991	36,114	27,788	8,326	12,982	21,308
1891—1901	152,009	34,168	27,205	6,963	7,605	14,568
1901—1911	144,404	33,487	25,515	7,972	3,779	11,751
1911—1926	140,625	48,147	35,669	12,478	932	(b) 13,410

(a) The populations given relate to the County and County Borough as constituted at the beginning of the intercensal period, and the births and deaths to the County and County Borough as constituted at the time of their registration. A portion of the County of Londonderry was transferred to the County of Antrim in 1915, consequent on the extension of Petrush Urban District.

(b) Including the deaths of non-civilians of the County and County Borough of Londonderry which occurred outside Northern Ireland. It has not been found possible to estimate the number of these deaths at all closely, but from the War mortality lists of soldiers from Ireland, which were compiled by the War Office from regimental records, it appears that for the whole of Northern Ireland the non-civilian deaths which occurred outside the country numbered about 10,000 during the last intercensal period, exclusive of the deaths of regular soldiers stationed outside the country at the date of the 1911 Census.

While comparable figures of excess of births over deaths are not available for periods prior to 1871, it is evident that the actual net outward movement from the County and County Borough during the past 85 years was much larger than the recorded decrease in population. Complete information as to the size and direction of the emigration stream is lacking, but for the period 1891-1911 it can be stated that emigration to places abroad accounted for approximately two-thirds of the net outward movement, and that 79 per cent. of the natives of Londonderry living elsewhere in Ireland were domiciled in the area now comprised by Northern Ireland.

From Table II it will be seen that urban districts as a whole have increased in population during the past 15 years, whilst rural districts as a whole have decreased—the trend in each aggregate following that exhibited in the preceding intercensal period.

The population of the County Borough has increased by 10.7 per cent. during the past 15 years, the increase varying in the wards between 7.1 per cent. and 16.4 per cent. The loss in population sustained by East Ward during 1901–1911 has been virtually regained during 1911–1926, and in three of the four remaining wards the average annual rate of increase during the last intercensal period has been much greater than during 1901–1911.

Taking county districts and County Borough together, the 1926 urban population constitutes 41.3 per cent. of the whole as against 36.4 per cent. in 1911, and 34.3 per cent. in 1901—the percentages quoted relating to urban areas as constituted at the date of each Census.

(a) The figures given relate to each county district and ward as constituted at the date of the 1926 Census.

* Exclusive of 8,636 acres under the larger rivers, lakes, and tideways.

The persons per acre rates vary in urban districts between 8.0 for Coleraine and 1.3 for Portstewart; and in the County Borough between 106.2 for West Ward and 12.9 for Waterside Ward. Such rates, however, should be used with reserve in measuring the degree of population density in urban areas, since the acreage of these may include widely differing proportions of waste land, land under pasture, etc. In rural districts the rates vary from 0.1 to 0.2 persons per acre.

Tables 3, 4, and 5 provide more detailed information regarding the population in the various sub-divisions of the County and County Borough, and incorporate figures of rateable valuation. The rateable valuation has increased during the past fifteen years from £437,334 to £454,780—an increase of 4.0 per cent. as compared with a decrease of 0.5 per cent. in population. (These figures refer to the County and County Borough as constituted at the date of the 1926 Census).

Parliamentary Constituency.—In considering the percentages shown in Table III, regard should be given to the qualifications entitling a person to be registered as an elector. In general, a man is qualified if 21 years of age or upwards, with the requisite residence or business premises qualification: a woman, if 30 years of age or upwards, and if (1) entitled to be registered as a local government elector in respect of the occupation of land or premises (not being a dwelling-house) of a yearly value of not less than £5, or of a dwelling-house; or (2) the wife of a husband entitled to be so registered.

It may be noted that a person may be registered as a parliamentary elector in a constituency although not resident therein.

The question of the comparison of the number of parliamentary electors with population will be dealt with more fully in the General Report.

BUILDINGS, ROOMS, AND FAMILIES.

Houses.—While there are differences in the definitions of the term “House” as used in 1911 and 1926, they do not affect to any appreciable extent the comparisons shown in the following table. The houses dealt with in this table embrace all types of buildings, etc. Tables 6 and 9 deal respectively with private houses and each of the other types of inhabited buildings, etc.

* The figures given relate to the County and County Borough as constituted at the date of each Census. A portion of the County of Londonderry was transferred to the County of Antrim in 1915, consequent on the extension of Portrush Urban District.

While the total number of houses decreased by 5.2 per cent., the number of inhabited houses decreased by 2.1 per cent. only—this being due to a considerable reduction in the number of uninhabited houses, the 1926 figure for which is the smallest recorded since 1871. The fact that the rate of decrease in inhabited houses is greater than that in population evidences a change in housing conditions to which further reference is made in the comment on Table V below.

The number of houses under construction is the highest recorded since 1831, and more than twice that in 1911.

Persons per Inhabited House and Persons per Family.—The average number both of persons per inhabited house and persons per family declined more or less steadily from 1851 to 1911. An increase in the former figure was registered in 1926, while in the latter a further slight fall was recorded. In this connection it should be noted that by “family” is meant Census family, which it will be seen from the definition on page viii, differs from the natural family of parents and children.

With regard to the habitation of houses by more than one family, there has been little change during the past half-century, the number of families per 100 inhabited houses at each Census enumeration from 1871 to 1926 being as follows: 106, 105, 105, 103, 103, 107. The slight increase in the figure during the last intercensal period follows from the fact that the proportion of families to population has increased while that of inhabited houses to population has decreased.

(a) The figures given relate to each county district and ward as constituted at the date of the 1926 Census.

Housing in County Districts and Wards.—Table V shows that there has been an increase in the total number of houses in two county districts and four wards, and a decrease in five county districts and one ward. Comparison of this Table with Table II also shows that since 1911 the proportion of inhabited houses to population has increased in four of the seven county districts, the process being reversed in the other three (Limavady Urban and Rural, and Londonderry Rural). The greatly lessened proportion of inhabited houses to population in each ward of the County Borough indicates that housing conditions there are definitely worse than in 1911.

The extent of sub-letting in the various county districts and wards is best indicated by the factor “number of private families per 100 private houses,” which is readily obtainable from the figures of house accommodation contained in Table 7. For the county districts the number of private families per 100 private houses averages 101, there being little variation from this average. For the County Borough the figure is 125, the rate ranging between 139 in West Ward and 115 in North Ward. Only 65 per cent. of the families in the County Borough occupy a whole house each, as against 98 per cent. in the County.

In the county districts as a whole, 99 per cent. of the inhabited private houses are occupied by single families and 50 per cent. contain one to three rooms: in the County Borough as a whole, 81 per cent. of the inhabited private houses are occupied by single families, and 61 per cent. contain four to five rooms.

(a) Families.—For 1926, Census Families residing in private houses only were taken, but for 1901 and 1911 all Census families were included, it being impracticable to segregate the figures for private families.

(b) Persons.—For 1926, the population in private houses only was taken, and for 1901 and 1911 that taken was the total population less the inmates of institutions.

Accommodation of Families and Persons.—The slight difference in treatment necessarily employed in dealing with the 1901 and 1911 families and persons figures in Table VI has but a small effect upon comparisons between the three Census years, the 4.69 persons per family in 1926 becoming 4.96 if adjusted to agree with the figures for the previous years. A comparison of the 1926 with the 1911 figures of accommodation of private families reveals a decided movement towards smaller sized units of occupation, 68 per cent. now consisting of 1 to 4 rooms as against 55 per cent. in 1911. The percentage of persons in occupation of 1 to 4 roomed units shows an even greater increase, i.e., from 49 per cent. in 1911 to 65 per cent. in 1926.

With regard to the size of families in relation to units of occupation, we find that whilst on the average the 1926 census family is smaller than that in 1901 and 1911, the sizes of families occupying 4 rooms and less are in general larger than the corresponding families in those years. It will also be seen that the average size of families occupying 5 or more rooms is appreciably less than in 1901 and 1911.

The occupied room accommodation in the county districts averages 0.91 rooms per person, the variation from this average ranging between 1.77 in Portstewart Urban and 0.82 in Limavady Rural. In urban districts room accommodation is above the mean; in rural districts generally below it. In the County Borough the occupied room accommodation averages 0.86 rooms per person, and varies from 1.07 in North Ward to 0.65 in West Ward.

A detailed analysis of the room accommodation coupled with the size of family, etc., appears in Table 8. In the County (excluding the County Borough) 26 per cent. of the families occupy 2 rooms each, the family of 2 occurs most frequently, and the most common combination consists of families of 2, each family occupying 2 rooms. In the County Borough 30 per cent. of the families occupy 4 rooms each, the family of 3 occurs most frequently, and the most common combination consists of families of 4, each family occupying 4 rooms.

Table VII, in conjunction with Table 8, will enable comparisons to be made between the density of occupation in each county district and ward. In these tables the density of 2 persons and less per room has not been sub-divided, but this is not intended to imply any judgment as to what in fact constitutes adequate accommodation, since this matter obviously could not be determined without a knowledge of other factors, such as size of rooms, sanitary and water provision, etc. Sub-divisions other than those set out in summary form can readily be calculated from the details given in the first nine columns of Table 8.

In the county districts as a whole 26.5 per cent. of the private family population occupy premises at a density of more than 2 persons per room. The average density of occupation in urban districts is appreciably less than in rural districts, and the distribution of the urban and rural population over the various densities exhibit marked differences, the proportion of the private family population occupying premises at a density of more than 2 persons per room being 16.1 per cent. in the urban districts as against 28.0 per cent. in the rural districts. The greatest density of occupation is found in Limavady Rural District, where 32.2 per cent. of the private family population are housed at a density of more than 2 persons per room.

In the County Borough as a whole 25.2 per cent. of the private family population occupy premises at a density of more than 2 persons per room, the greatest density of occupation being found in West Ward, where 40.3 per cent. of the private family population occupy premises at a density of more than 2 persons per room.

Comparison of Units of Occupation with Inhabited Private Houses.—Another comparison which may usefully be made is that shown in Table VIII, the figures for which have been extracted from Tables 7 and 8.

TABLE VIII.

6 and over	1,765	20.4	2,057	29.6
Totals	8,666	100.0	6,952	100.0

In the foregoing table, which excludes uninhabited houses, a classification of families according to the number of rooms they occupy is shown side by side with a separate classification of Inhabited Private Houses according to the number of rooms which they contain. It will be seen that whilst there are 3,292 families in the 1-3 room group there are only 683 houses in that group. In the remaining groups the numbers of houses are greater than the numbers of families.

Apart from all questions as to size of rooms, etc. a hypothetical re-arrangement of families to bring their room accommodation into direct relation with that of the houses available would therefore still leave 2,609 families of the 1-3 room group in occupation of a part of a house only in each case.

It will be seen from the figures for the County Borough on page 35 that under the conditions which in fact exist 3,042 of the total number of families are in occupation of only a part of a house.

If the aim be to secure a greater degree of family privacy, the existence of many cases of shared houses suggests the need for the provision either of additional houses each containing a relatively small number of rooms, or, the provision of separate premises in larger structurally sub-divided buildings. In order to determine the type of house to be erected in future, however, many factors need to be taken into consideration. In this connection special attention is drawn to the figures relating to the County Borough on page 40, from which it will be seen that of the families in occupation of 1-3 rooms, 414 out of the total of 3,292 comprise only one person each, on the other hand, however, 395 of these families each comprised 7 or more persons.

INSTITUTIONS, ETC.

The population in each of the types of inhabited buildings, etc., other than private houses, is shown in Tables 9 and 10, together with the number of inmates in respect of institutions. The institutions are not individually identified as in 1911, but the number of institutions in each category is given. The inmates of the Poor Law Institution number 630 as against 651 at the date of the 1911 Census. Persons on shipboard number 159 as against 132 in 1911. "Other premises" include police and military barracks, residential schools, premises occupied by caretakers, etc.

SEXES, AGES, AND MARITAL CONDITIONS.

Table 11 shows the distribution of the population of the County and County Borough by sex, age, and marital condition. The following tables summarise the position in 1926 and the changes in the last intercensal period.

Excess of Females over Males. Table 2 shows that the number of females per 1,000 males has fluctuated considerably during the past century. In recent years the trend has been downward—from 1,090 in 1901 to 1,057 in 1926.

Distribution according to Age.—The decrease of 0.7 per cent. in the total population is the net result of decreases in age groups 5-14, 20-24, 30-44, 65-84, and 90 and over; and increases in age groups 0-4, 15-19, 25-29, 45-64, and 85-89. Materials for an analysis of the manner in which variations in the number of births and deaths from year to year, the number of war deaths, and the movement of population have combined to produce these changes in age distribution are not available: the effect has been to lower the average age of the population from approximately 30.7 years in 1911 to 30.1 years at the present time.

Distribution by Marital Condition.—Table XII shows the percentage variations in the male and female population of each marital condition since 1911. The single females and widowed persons have decreased at a greater rate, and the single males at a lesser rate, than is shown for the population as a whole; while the married persons have actually increased.

EDUCATION.

From Table 12 it will be seen that of the total population in the County and County Borough 19.8 per cent. of the males and 18.6 per cent. of the females are attending educational establishments.

Of the children aged 6 to 13 inclusive, 3.5 per cent. of boys and 3.6 per cent. of girls are not stated to be attending school.

At ages 15 to 19 inclusive, the persons still attending various kinds of educational establishments represent 13.5 per cent. of the males and 14.8 per cent. of the females.

In the regional education area comprising the County Borough, 21.8 per cent. of the males and 19.1 per cent. of the females are attending educational establishments. Of the children aged 6–13 inclusive, 1.8 per cent. of boys and 1.6 per cent. of girls are not stated to be attending school. At ages 15–19 inclusive, the persons still attending various kinds of educational establishments represent 18.7 per cent. of the males and 14.1 per cent. of the females.

In endeavouring to draw conclusions from this table it will be necessary to treat the Census figures relating to persons attending technical schools with considerable reserve, pending further investigation, since a marked difference has been found to exist between them and figures of pupils enrolled in technical schools as published by the Ministry of Education. Further reference to this matter will be made in the General Report on the Census relating to Northern Ireland as a whole.

OCCUPATIONS.

Proportion Occupied.—From Table XIII it will be seen that while for males the percentage of the total population occupied has remained practically unchanged since 1911, the proportion for females has slightly increased. In 1926, 43.3 per cent. of the population of both sexes and all ages were occupied and thus normally were wage earners. It should be noted that both employed and out-of-work persons are included in the term “occupied.” Of the males aged 12 years and over, the proportion occupied has decreased slightly since 1911 : of the females, the proportion has appreciably increased.

Numerically important Occupations.—When considering the grouping of occupations into orders and sub-orders it should be remembered that this grouping disregards the industries in which the persons may be engaged. For example, the occupational order XXII (Transport Workers) includes porters, messengers, carmen, etc., irrespective of industry, but excludes clerks, carpenters, navvies, etc., employed in the transport service. The latter occupations are included under occupational orders XXVIII, XV, XVII, etc., respectively.

From Table XV it will be seen that about 46 per cent. of the occupied males appear under the main group or order II, Agricultural Occupations. This order contains more than five times as many persons as the next in point of size—XXIII, Commerce, Finance, and Insurance. The occupations of most numerical importance among the males are: Farmers; Agricultural Labourers; and Farmers' relatives assisting in the work of the farm.

* In the volume for Belfast County Borough this table is replaced by Tables XIII and XIV, which show the occupied population, etc., by age groups.

Of the occupied females almost 76 per cent. are included under the orders XXVII, Personal Service; XIII, Makers of Textile Goods and Articles of Dress; and II, Agricultural Occupations; the most important occupations numerically being Domestic Servants and Sewers and Stitchers.

† Only orders or sub-orders showing proportions of 5 or more per 1,000 occupied males or females are included, and the Single or Grouped Occupations have been limited to those showing proportions of 10 or more per 1,000.

Table 13 shows the numbers of each sex included under each heading of the full occupational classification.

Occupational Status and National Health Insurance.—A consideration of the percentages in the following table, which has been compiled from Table 14, shows that in the County and County Borough taken together between a third and a fourth of the occupied males are either employers or workers on own account, the proportion for occupied females being 1 in 7. Of the employees, apprentices, and out-of-work taken together, those who were returned as out of work at the date of the Census represent 14 per cent. in the case of males and 7 per cent. in the case of females.

It will be seen that in the County, Fishing and Agriculture directly provide a livelihood for 55 per cent. of the occupied population; the Manufacturing Industries (using that term in a wide sense) for 17 per cent.; and Personal Service (which includes service in hotels, restaurants, etc.) for 10 per cent. The males outnumber the females in all the groups except Professions, where the females are slightly in excess, and Personal Service, where the females are more than four times as numerous as the males.

In the County Borough, the Manufacturing Industries directly provide a livelihood for 47 per cent. of the occupied population; Commerce and Finance (which includes the wholesale and retail distributive trades, banking, and insurance) for 19 per cent.; and Personal Service (which includes service in hotels, restaurants, etc.) for 11 per cent. The main manufacturing industry is that of Clothing, which provides for 28 per cent. of the occupied population. The males outnumber the females in all the groups except Manufacturing Industries and Professions, where the females are in excess, and Personal Service, where the females are more than twice as numerous as the males.

BIRTHPLACES.

Table 17 shows, by sex, the numbers of persons born in each of the counties of Northern Ireland, other countries in the British Isles, overseas Dominions, foreign countries, and at sea. Of the total population 80.6 per cent. were born in the County or County Borough, and 7.4 per cent. in the remaining parts of Northern Ireland. Only 0.6 per cent. were born outside the British Isles, and nearly one third of these were born in the British Dominions and Colonies. Persons born in foreign countries numbered only 611, and 12 persons were born at sea.

(a) Including Birthplace not stated. In 1926 these numbered 20.

(b) Persons born in the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands have been included under this heading. In 1926 they numbered 5 persons born in the Isle of Man and 1 in the Channel Islands.

(c) The figures given relate to the County and County Borough as constituted at the date of each Census. A portion of the County of Londonderry was transferred to the County of Antrim in 1915, consequent on the extension of Portrush Urban District.

From Table XVIII it will be seen that the proportion of the population born in Northern Ireland has gradually decreased since 1861, while the proportion born in the Irish Free State has steadily increased and now forms almost 8 per cent. of the whole. The proportions for other parts of the British Isles and abroad have also increased.

RELIGIOUS PROFESSIONS.

It will be seen from Table XIX that Roman Catholics and Protestant Episcopalians have increased in numbers, and now form greater proportions of the population than in 1911, while Presbyterians and Other and Not Stated Denominations are proportionately less numerous. A slight decrease in numbers is shown amongst Methodists, but their relative position remains unchanged.

* The figures given relate to the County and County Borough as constituted at the date of each Census. A portion of Londonderry was transferred to the County of Antrim in 1915, consequent on the extension of Portrush Urban District.

† This figure comprises 25,765 Church of Ireland, 1,899 Church of England, and 2 Episcopal Church of Scotland.

ORPHANHOOD.

Table 19 shows that, of the 44,905 children enumerated in the County and County Borough at ages under 16, 5,258 have lost one or both parents. This figure excludes cases of orphaned children whose loss has been supplied by step-parents or adoptive parents, and 117 cases in which no statement as to parents was secured. Of the 5,258 orphans, 55 per cent. are fatherless and 36 per cent. are motherless, the remaining 9 per cent. being orphaned by the death of both parents. The high proportion of fatherless to motherless orphans is in part a corollary of the high proportion of widows to widowers, though to some extent it may be due to a possible tendency to regard the fathers of illegitimate children as dead if their whereabouts are unknown.

INFIRMITIES.

The number of persons returned as both Deaf and Dumb is 49, or 25 less than the number returned in 1911. The Dumb Only numbered 8, which compares with 22 in 1911.

The number returned as Blind has increased from 98 in 1911 to 187 in 1926.

The total number of persons who have been classified as Crippled is 441, comprising 269 males and 172 females. It has not been found possible to test the reliability of this figure, and it should be accepted with due reserve, both on account of the broad interpretation which necessarily had to be placed on the term "crippled" for classification purposes, and because of a possible reluctance on the part of some crippled persons to disclose their infirmity by stating it on the Census schedule.

Of the 722 persons returned as mentally afflicted, 496 were enumerated in Asylums and 41 in other institutions. In 1911 the persons returned as Lunatic or Idiot numbered 696, of whom 555 were enumerated in Asylums.

Particulars of the sex, age, and marital condition of persons suffering from infirmities will be found in Table 20.

TABLE 3.—Area, Population, Houses, Accommodation, and Valuation.

County and County Borough, Urban Districts, Rural Districts, District Electoral Divisions, Townlands, etc.

- DEFINITIONS.— 1. Definitions of the terms "Area," "Population," "Houses," "Inhabited," "Private Families," "Rooms," and "Rateable Valuation" will be found on pages vi to viii.
2. The 1911 figures throughout are for the County and its administrative divisions as constituted at the date of the 1926 Census. (See note on Administrative Divisions, page vi.)
3. The Towns shown in this table in italics have no defined boundaries, but comprise groups of 50 houses and upwards, as determined by the enumerator.
4. Dots (.) indicate nil (0), and dashes (—) indicate that information cannot or is not intended to be given.

- ARRANGEMENT.—1. Urban Districts are in alphabetical order followed by Rural Districts in a similar order.
2. District Electoral Divisions are arranged in alphabetical order under each Urban and Rural District.
3. Within each District Electoral Division, Townlands are shown in alphabetical order under the Dispensary District in which they are situated. For entire Dispensary Districts see Table 4.
4. Where references to other D.E.D.'s are given in footnotes the D.E.D. reference numbers are added in brackets.

TABLE 5.—Area, Population, Houses, Accommodation, and Valuation.

County, County Electoral Divisions, and District Electoral Divisions.

- DEFINITIONS.— 1. Definitions of the terms "Area," "Population," "Houses," "Inhabited," "Private Families," "Rooms," and "Rateable Valuation" will be found on pages vi to viii.
 2. The 1911 figures throughout are for the County and its administrative divisions as constituted at the date of the 1926 Census. (See note on Administrative Divisions, page vi.)
 3. Dots (.) indicate nil (0), and dashes (—) indicate that information cannot or is not intended to be given.

- ARRANGEMENT.— 1. County Electoral Divisions are in alphabetical order, and, under each of these, District Electoral Divisions are arranged in a similar order.
 2. The reference in the second column of the Table is to the serial number prefixed to the name of each District Electoral Division in the first column of Table 3.

ABBREVIATIONS.—C.E.D.—County Electoral Division; D.E.D.—District Electoral Division.
