Northern Ireland Longitudinal Study (NILS)

The Northern Ireland Longitudinal Study (NILS) is a large-scale data linkage study which has been created by linking administrative and statistical data. The Study is designed for statistical and research uses only and is managed under various legislative acts including The Census Act. Information is linked over time on people from Census, vital events and health registration datasets. Data sources include 1981, 1991, 2001 and 2011 Census data, birth, death and marriage registrations and demographic data derived from health registrations. The result is a 30 year plus longitudinal data set which is regularly being updated. In addition to this rich resource there is also the potential to link further Health and Social Care data in distinct linkage projects (DLPs). The NILS dataset, which is anonymised, is managed in a secure environment by the Northern Ireland Statistics & Research Agency (NISRA).

Northern Ireland Mortality Study (NIMS)

The Northern Ireland Mortality Study (NIMS) is a large-scale data linkage study, developed in 2006, that links mortality data from the General Register Office (GRO) to 2001 and 2011 Census returns. The NIMS has been developed as a companion dataset to the full NILS, in which 100 per cent of the populations as enumerated in the 2001 and 2011 Censuses are included. As with the NILS dataset, these anonymised data are managed in a secure environment by NISRA. Like the NILS dataset, the NIMS is designed and maintained for statistical and research uses only and is managed under various legislative acts including The Census Act.
