

census 2021

Text alternative for Census 2021 infographic: Ards and North Down Local Government District as 100 people

The infographic presents an overview of Ards and North Down Local Government District's population on census day in 2021. It describes the population as if Ards and North Down Local Government District were 100 people.

Sex

For the Census 2021 usually resident population:

- 51 are female
- 49 are male

Age

For the Census 2021 usually resident population:

- 17 are aged 0 to 14 years
- 27 are aged 15 to 39 years
- 34 are aged 40 to 64 years
- 22 are aged 65 years and over

Ethnic group

For the Census 2021 usually resident population:

- 98 identified their ethnic group as White
- 2 identified their ethnic group as Other

census 2021

National identity [note 1]

For the Census 2021 usually resident population:

- 48 described their national identity as British only
- 6 described their national identity as Irish only
- 22 described their national identity as Northern Irish only
- 25 described their national identity as Other

Note 1: these figures are based on the person based classification [MS-B15 National identity (person based) - basic detail (classification 1)]

Country of birth

For the Census 2021 usually resident population:

- 87 were born in Northern Ireland
- 9 were born in the Rest of UK and Republic of Ireland
- 5 were born in an Other country

Passports held [note 2]

For the Census 2021 usually resident population:

- 67 held a UK only passport
- 8 held an Ireland only passport
- 11 held passport(s) other than UK only or Ireland only
- 13 held No passport

Note 2: these figures are based on the person based classification [MS-A20 Passports held (person based) - basic detail (classification 1)]

census 2021

Religion

For the Census 2021 usually resident population:

- 11 described themselves as Catholic
- 29 described themselves as Presbyterian
- 14 described themselves as Church of Ireland
- 4 described themselves as Methodist
- 10 described themselves as Other Christian
- 1 described themselves as having Other religions
- 32 described themselves as having No religion or not stated

Main language

For the Census 2021 usually resident population aged 3 years and over:

- 98 had English as their main language
- 2 had Other as their main language

Knowledge of Irish

For the Census 2021 usually resident population aged 3 years and over:

- 3 had Some ability in Irish
- 97 had No ability in Irish

Knowledge of Ulster-Scots

For the Census 2021 usually resident population aged 3 years and over:

- 12 had Some ability in Ulster-Scots
- 88 had No ability in Ulster-Scots